Code of Conduct Complaint – Decision Notice.

As a result of several areas of concern, in September 2013 the Chairman lodged a complaint regarding the conduct of Councillor Hambly and a possible breach of the Code of Conduct .

A decision of the Monitoring Officer was received on 14th October 2013 and notice was given that a breach of the Code had been found, in that Councillor Hambly failed to treat the Clerk, Chairman and other Councillors of St Kew Parish Council with respect

A sanction was imposed in that Cllr Hambly be provided with further training on Parish Council procedures and the Code of Conduct.

A review was requested and subsequently rescinded. A further review dated 21st July 2104 found upheld the original findings that Councillor Hambly was in breach of the Code of Conduct and recommended further training with the participation of the Council as a whole.

The Decision Notice is in the public domain and can be viewed on the St Kew Parish Council website at www.stkewparish.org.uk and on www.cornwall.gov.uk/council-and-democracy
